Year 2 children enjoying stories on World Book Day

Attendance

Last half term our attendance was 95.66%

Our target is 97%

There were 31 incidences of children being late.

Polite Reminder

The whistle goes at 8.50am. Please be in your line ready. Every minute of every lesson counts!

Year 5 & 6 children were enthralled in the performance by The Young Shakespeare Company with guest appearances by our very own budding actors.

“Both exciting and thrilling, the Shakespeare play was the best so far. Because Puck is very funny and has good taste in music he is my favourite character. It brought us into the world of Shakespeare’s imagination.” Liam Year 6

“It was so exciting and funny to play the role of someone I wasn’t. I loved the dedication they put into making the play fun for us. My favourite part was when we met Puck (played by Jasper) and his taste of music.” Aaliyah Year 5
